

LIGHT + BUILDING PREVIEW

DARC'S WOMEN OF LIGHT

LINDSEY ADELMAN

1. Niko
Faro

Niko is a table lamp with a surface on which you can charge your smartphone without unsightly cables getting in the way. Highly decorative, it is perfect for small spaces or bedrooms with minimalist décor. Niko offers double functionality, task lighting and a comforting glow with a minimalist Nordic design.

4. Wittenberg 4.0
Mawa

The functionality and lighting quality of the Wittenberg 4.0, as well as the superb quality of the product as a whole, make this luminaire an appealing solution for many contemporary interiors. The whole spotlight serie impresses through an effective glare suppressing illuminating surface and ability to pivot 90° and rotate 365°.

5. Chestnut
Viso

Inspired by mid-century modern design, Chestnut's sophistication and organic beauty make it the ideal candidate for any interior space. The fixture can be installed on the ceiling, as a simple wall sconce or as a decorative piece while the angle of each plate can be adjusted individually for further customisation.

6. Koyoo
Ingo Maurer

Koyoo is a small portable light. A round sheet of paper that glows with warm light wherever you take it. The light source and battery are placed in a small, anodized aluminum lamp base, chargeable via USB. The hidden light perfectly matches the shape of the paper shade - held by a thin stainless steel wire.
